THE ST. ALBERT ON STURGEON PLAYERS

The Drama Club spent a most enjoyable evening at the Walderdale Playhouse on April 9, where Frank Glenfield was acting in "A Sound of Murder".

There was much excitement when the news got around that Frank Glenfield was moving to St. Albert last year. After showing us his excellent ability to direct in "Papa is All", he now has the great responsibility of Production Manager for our next play "The Late Christopher Bean", May 10 and 11. Frank is not only very active in St. Albert Drama, but has directed one of the recent Walderdale Playhouse plays "The Cave Dwellers" and acted in their last play. His past experience varies from adjudicating throughout Alberta, being Governor of the Dominion Drama Festival, to working with the Theatre for Children in Edmonton just to mention a few. With each new production, his bubbling enthusiasm gives confidence and assistance to all his fellow associates. As Production Manager for "The Late Christopher Bean" he will have working with him:

Ann Hemmingway as Set Designer — a great asset to St. Albert for founding the Arts and Crafts Guild, as well as her Saturday morning Arts and Crafts program for children.

Katie Moffat as Costume Mistress and Joanne Weerheym as her assistant — both have worked diligently backstage for our previous plays.

Carlee Adams as Property Mistress and Betsy Briggs as her assistant. Carlee Adams you will remember for her sensitive portrayal of Emma in "Papa is All". Through Betsy Briggs' determination and hard work as first Secretary of our Club, she was largely responsible for getting it through the struggle of its first year.

Wendy Parkes as Prompter — a Grade 10 student at Sir Alexander Mackenzie School.

And as mentioned last week, Nan Tandrup and Joy Wakefield for Make-Up, not to mention the people who will devote many hours of their time to building and painting sets, arranged lights and numerous other jobs backstage.

Dear Editor,

We have a problem with the school bus. Everyday the bus stops in front of my house and the children leaving the bus run all over my lawn. My neighbour had this trouble before, but she complained and now I have the trouble. I have already phoned the school board four times but their answer is the bus must stop somewhere. Is there not a law in St. Albert? Must I put up with all this dirty mud all over my property. I planted grass at the sidewalk to keep it neat, now it's all mud. Is there somebody who can solve this problem?

In advance, my sincerest thanks to the one who can help me.

Mrs. George Dettling,

ST. ALBERT United Church

St. Albert United Church was filled to overflowing at the Easter Morning Service on April 14. Dr. Schwarz preached on the significance of the Resurrection to mankind and to the church specifically. The choir, led by Mrs. P. Upright, gave wonderful renditions of Robertson's "All in the April Evening", Handel's "Worthy is the Lamb" and Handel's "Amen Chorus". An Easter Sunrise Service was held by the Si-C. This was followed by breakfast at the church, which was prepared by the group, assisted by interested parents.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE St. Albert United Church will observe its ninth anniversary on April 21 at a morning service. PLEASE NOTE, the time of this service will be 9:30 a.m. This is the summer hour of morning worship. This year we are privileged to have as our guest speaker, Rev. Dr. J. W. Bainbridge. Dr. Bainbridge has had a ministry of almost one half a century in length. He has served in many pastorates and as a chaplain in the Armed Services. Dr. Bainbridge "retired" some nine years ago and in his "retirement" has been the founder of several new congregations, the latest being in Ottewell district in Edmonton; he has served as supervising pastor for a number of student fields, including St. Albert during the years 1956-57; and he has provided the other ministers of the Edmonton district with a magnificent example of a man devoted to ministering to people. It is not often that our pulpit is so well filled, everyone is welcome to come and share this hour of worship and inspiration. The Choir will present Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus". Members of the Session and Stewards are reminded of the meetings to be held on 23 April in the church.

The Party Line

It would seem we're in for a "pretty shift" summer.

The big thing in fashion this year is the shift. At least part of its popularity is due to the fact that it is one of the most comfortable one-piece garments since the min-skirt. Unlike the min-skirt, though, the shift is not limited to casual wear. Depending on the fabric used, the shift can go shopping, to a tea or to a summer dance. It's equally at home on the beach or at a cocktail party. For the sports wear shift, a favourite fabric of seasons past - tennis, is ideal. Also excellent for casual wear shifts are cotton knit, seersucker and gingham. For street wear and shopping trips, polished cottons, satens and any of the many cotton-mercer blends. For the special occasions, terylene suited prints and silk prints of which there are an end of patterned designs to choose from, transform the shift into as chic and elegant a dress as is desired. For those who sew, the shift is so simple and economical, it could well be called a dressmaker's delight. For those who don't sew, what better dress to learn on. So, for fashion's sake, shift!
